

Dear world,

Stories of place is where migration and innovation meet. But what does that mean?

Stories. Stories of leadership, innovation and bold new economic models that demonstrate the potential of migration.

Stories that provide practical examples of how people and organizations across Europe are making this change. Stories that are meant to spark conversations and new questions.

Welcome to your monthly digest of Stories of place.

STORIES OF PLACE FEBRUARY 2020

Leadership models are changing for the better

On Wednesday, March 4th PLACE, The German Marshall Fund of the U.S. and the Canadian Embassy in Paris invite you to discover migration differently at the launch of the Emerging Leaders program.

read more

Executive Breakfast on Investing and Recruiting Newcomer Talent

Newcomer Talent. How do you find it? How do you foster it? How does it help you grow? On January 16th, private sector leaders found the answers to these questions with PLACE and Ecole des Ponts Business School.

read more

Innovation can, and should, come from anywhere

Sobi is an IT consultant, sustainable agriculture advocate, enabler of migrant-led-innovation and pillar of the PLACE community.

read more

NaTakallam, bridging distributed workforces and displaced populations

Discover NaTakallam, a unique language teaching program that has harnessed the challenges and disruptive trends of our shifting economies and turned them into an opportunity.

read more

Diversity is a disruptor, and your company needs it

Not sure how to ride the wave of the future of work? Bringing more voices to the table can help you find your answer.

read more

Resilient people, and communities, are built through languages

The British Council is a global actor and PLACEmaker that actively builds resilience and promotes diversity in communities around the world.

read more

Crisis what? How migrant-led-advocacy is the key we needed all along

Discover the importance of migrant-led-advocacy with the latest study by the European Programme for Integration and Migration.

read more

Sharpen your skills as a coach with PLACE

We are looking for experts from around the globe to coach migrants and refugees in Europe to take on leadership roles on public issues. Does this sound like you?

read more

Haneen, creative writer and champion of mental health awareness

Haneen is a Syrian poet who firmly believes in the powers of creative writing as a tool to overcome the challenges of mental illnesses, particularly for children.

read more

Loved diving into the Stories of place? Share them with a friend for them to enjoy and never miss a beat by following Stories of place on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

Discovered Stories of place through a friend? Sign-up here for your monthly Loudspeaker from PLACE.

Take care until next time,

PLACE network, 27 rue plat, Paris, France
Unsubscribe Manage preferences

Send free email today
HubSpot