Their knowledge is later shared with policymakers with the goal of contributing to the decision-making processes.

Meanwhile, Catalysts of the Accelerator honed their storytelling skills during five online workshops with Leonardo Maldonado, who among his many hats is Co-Lider at Cities CAN B, Co-Founder at Boma Chile, and CEO at Gulliver.

Yet, when given the opportunity, refugee women stand out as a highly motivated and resilient cohort of the workforce.

Our partner Tent Partnership for Refugees, in partnership with Economist Impact, has published a guide to creating a more welcoming work ecosystem environment for refugees, especially refugee women.
