Dear {{ contact.FIRSTNAME }}

Spring is all about transformation. It starts with celebrations of many collective battles for a fairer world, from the celebration of Women’s History Month to the fight against racism and racial discrimination. It’s like a fuel for new paradigms that we can carry with us all year. As Angela Davis once said: “You have to act as if it were possible to radically change the world. And you have to do it all the time.” Do you feel energized already?

Discover a co-creation workshop from the inside!

As part of the Embrace project to foster newcomer’s democratic participation, 8 newcomers and 5 civil servants have come together at the same table for the first time to imagine and build solutions to improve the inclusion of newcomers.

With the help of 2 newcomer facilitators, they gathered in one of Pantin’s Maisons de Quartier—which are hubs for citizen participation—to brainstorm, ideate, storyboard and start co-creating projects for a more inclusive city.

See the participants at work!

Welcome to our co-projecting workshop!

What’s it like to be an advocate for better refugee integration in Europe?
Meet Ziauddin Samadi, the Vice President of the Association of Afghan Community in Portugal and one of the Catalysts of the Emerging Leaders Fellowship! He helps other refugees and migrants adapt and integrate into life in Portugal. His story was recently published on Speak Social’s blog.

Support newcomer women in their path to employment

While newcomer women face accrued inequality when it comes to their professional paths, there are many actions each one of us can take to support them towards meaningful employment. For International Women’s Day, our partners at the TENT Partnership for refugees each shared what must be done to support newcomer women trying to enter the workforce in their host societies. In France, on the same day, BMW France shared the testimony of Amel, one of the company’s employees who mentored a Catalyst from Up Collective in her entrepreneurial journey. How are you leading change?
