It's that time of the year: our annual report, Zoom on 2022, is out!

An opportunity for us to take stock of all we've achieved and remind you a little bit about who we are and where we're going.

The many successes in this report are those of all the people who contribute to our programs, who want to learn and innovate with us and the Catalysts who lead by example.

[Apply to be part of the Emerging Leaders
Artivism Alliance](#)

We're looking for the newcomer voices that are shaping new realities through the arts.

The Emerging Leaders Artivism Alliance is a pioneering program that positions newcomers (refugees and migrants) who are at the cross-roads of arts and social change, to make use of their resilient life experience as potential for leadership and large-scale influence.

Is this you?

- Actively engaged in creating change through an artistic practice
- Lived experience of migration (refugee or economic migrant) and for 2023 applications: based in a European or African country
- Leading a project impacting a social or environmental challenge
- Eager to spread new narratives in institutions, networks or mainstream audiences
- Able to showcase your work and communicate effectively about your goal

Then this fellowship is for you!

Supporting migrant entrepreneurship has never been easier

Have you heard of the MOOC "Incubating Migrants Entrepreneurs"?

Launched by the MIG.EN.CUBE Project, which gathered academic professors, practitioners in the field of migration and entrepreneurs, it is the most comprehensive resource for incubators and policymakers across Europe. It will allow actors in the entrepreneurship support ecosystem to get the right skills and tools to better support migrant entrepreneurship!

You work in an incubator or with policymakers: Why should you sign up (or send it to your network)? Opening a business in a foreign country can be a struggle. This MOOC is your first step towards implementing more inclusive practices which will open up invaluable paths for the entrepreneurship ecosystem.

Emerging Leaders Catalysts are showing up and out

Have you heard the latest news from Fernando and Sheila, two Catalysts from Emerging Leaders?

Fernando, a member of our public leadership accelerator, is also a member of the Obama Foundation's network of Leaders in Europe. This month, alongside other leaders in the network, he met up with President Obama in Berlin to exchange with him on the future of democracy!

Sheila, on the other hand, was recently published on Forbes! An active member of the Emerging Leaders Fellowship 2022, she shares her insights on how to combat workplace ageism. In the article, she lays out five practical steps we can take to stop age discrimination and react to it. Let's read up and join the movement towards a more inclusive and diverse workplace!
