Food for Thought: International Migrants Week at PLACE

This week, we marked International Migrants Week with a spotlight on our People of PLACE initiative, featuring community members like Thamara Ferreira, a member of the Fast Forward cohort at PLACE.

☀️ Thamara's Story:

Hailing from Cedral, Maranhão, Brazil, Thamara recently completed her Master's in Marketing at Sciences Po Paris, specializing in CSR and sustainability. Through PLACE's Fast Forward program, she's gained essential skills and built connections to thrive as a migrant in France.

💬 "Fast Forward has been a beacon of hope, helping me connect with others and thrive as a migrant in France," says Thamara.

Check out Thamara's story on our social media.

Let's continue celebrating the incredible impact of migrants worldwide!
